Can this be the gentle Jesus speaking to us? And why is he saying these things? Is it to frighten us? And what is this "fire" which Jesus, our Lord, is so anxious to let loose upon the earth? It is the fire of love. Not our love; God's love. "Love one another," He has always told us this. But He also hastened to add: "in the way I have loved you." This is the way we must love one another. Not just sharing and caring as we do in our ordinary human lives. Jesus' love is total and self-sacrificing: totally giving of Himself; His whole heart; His whole soul and all His being. This is the kind of love the world needs. God's love; Divine love. We should be on fire with love; on fire with zeal to set the world aflame. Not to burn it, but to fill the world with God's dazzling light. This love should burn like a blazing fire until it covers and warms and fills the face of the earth.

STEWARDSHIP

Jesus never promised us that the life of a Christian disciple would be easy. On the contrary, he tells us that it will be difficult since his teachings are divisive and hard for many to accept. If the people persecuted Jesus and the prophets before him, how much more will the world persecute those who believe in Christ? Although the Christian life is not meant to be easy, let us take courage knowing that Christ has faced it all first, and will strengthen us when we face opposition ourselves.
