St. John Chrysostom, pray for us

We tend to allow many things to control and possess us...greed, power, material things, wealth. Perhaps unknowingly, we 'love' these things. If we pursue the love of God however, and put His kingdom first in our lives, He will give us everything we need to sustain us. To be a disciple of Jesus means to detach ourselves from everything else—because the bond with Jesus is stronger than any other bond. You are either with the spirit of Jesus or you are with the spirit of the world. Who is the Lord and Master of your life?

WELCOME FR. CARLOS!

As he begins his ministry with us, let us warmly welcome Fr. Carlos as our new associate. You will recognize his familiar face as our Seminarian here at St. John's a year ago. Please pray for him: Watch over your servant O Lord. In his struggles, give him the strength of mind and heart to keep walking with you. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSION APPEAL

After a 4 years, on the weekend of July 15 and 16, we will resume the Mission Appeal to help the Archdiocese of Castries, St. Lucia.

OFFERING OUR GIFTS FOR OTHERS

The woman in the first reading was able to give from her material wealth to support the prophet Elisha. However, while we may not have the same material wealth as this woman, we all possess the wealth of our time. As stewards we should reflect on how we can use our time to serve Christ and the church.

WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

His mercy is from age to age" is the theme of the third edition of the worldwide event, desired by Pope Francis, which will be celebrated on July 23. The theme was chosen to be in tune with that of World Youth Day in Lisbon: Mary arose and went with haste, taken from Luke's Gospel. Even the short passage "His mercy from age to age" is taken from Luke's Gospel and is the end of the first part of the Magnificat, when Mary immediately goes to meet her elderly cousin Elizabeth after the Angel's annunciation. Thus, it is a theme that highlights the importance of dialogue between generations, which is fundamental for perceiving and contemplating God's merciful action on behalf of human beings. Indeed, dialogue between the elderly and the young helps to obtain a more complete vision of the way in which a more humane and fraternal society can be built.

SECURITIES AS A CHARITABLE GIFT OPTION

One of the most financially sound ways to support the Archdiocese of Toronto is with the gift of securities (stocks, bonds, mutual funds). When you donate stocks, mutual funds and other publicly traded securities to a registered charity, you pay no capital gains tax and receive a tax receipt for the full amount of the gift. It means a great tax break for you and more significant support of your Parish and various archdiocesan charities such as ShareLife, St. Augustine's Seminary, The Shepherds' Trust, and many others. To donate securities, follow this link: <https://www.archtoronto.org/en/offices-and-ministries/social-justice--outreach/development-and-sharelife/home/gifts-of-securities/> to download:

THE BROWN SCAPULAR: A SILENT DEVOTION
CARMELITE RECOUNTS MARY'S PROMISE TO ST. SIMON STOCK
JULY 6-15

On the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, we present here an article written by Discalced Carmelite Father Kieran Kavanaugh, on the devotion of the brown Carmelite scapular.

* * *

During the Crusades in 12th century, a group of Westerners took up the life of hermits by the well of St. Elijah on Mt. Carmel. They built a chapel in honor of the Mother of Jesus, conscious that they were living in the area made holy by Jesus and his Mother (Nazareth is less than 20 miles away).

When Saracens toppled the Latin kingdom of the Crusaders, the hermits of Carmel had to flee the holy mountain and return to the West; Cypress, Sicily, France, England, Ireland and other countries. They brought with them little more than their title of "Brothers of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel".

In Europe they were entering a hostile world cluttered with many new religious families. The arrival of strangers from Mount Carmel was inauspicious, they were frowned upon. Internally, they were divided as to whether they should cling to their background as hermits or adapt to a new status of begging friars. According to tradition, on July 16, 1251 our Lady of Mount Carmel appeared to the prior general, St. Simon Stock, at Aylesford, England.

The Blessed Virgin promised St. Simon Stock, oppressed with worries, that whoever would wear the Carmelite habit devoutly would receive the gift of final perseverance. The habit was taken to mean the scapular in particular. The scapular was a broad band of cloth over the shoulders, falling below the knees toward the feet front and back as an apron, worn still as part of the religious habit by a number of orders of monks and friars. As it was gradually adapted for use by the laity, it became two small panels of brown cloth joined by strings and worn over the shoulders as a familiar Marian sacramental.

From the 16th century until the Second Vatican Council the scapular received warm welcome from the faithful and enjoyed a singular approval by the Church magisterium. Part of the reason for this esteem was undoubtedly the constant stream of wonderful graces, spiritual and temporal, that were poured out on individuals through its devout use. But another reason for its popularity was its strict connection with the salvation of our soul, which takes priority over all our other duties here below.

Dear fellow parishioners,

Fifteen months ago, our Society of St Vincent de Paul conference conceived the idea that we should participate in the Society's Canada-Wide, North of 60 Project, which has been providing food assistance to 17 Canadian Arctic communities for over ten years.

We are excited to report that with the support of our parish priests, the financial generosity of St John Chrysostom and St Elizabeth Seton parishioners, their families, friends, neighbours, fellow Vincentians and individuals from other faith groups, we are able to move forward with the purchase of food items. Raising $24,686 toward this cause could not have been possible without your help. We are extremely grateful. Thank you!

A special thank you goes to the Society of St Vincent de Paul's Our Lady of Grace Conference, in Aurora, who has partnered with us in filling our 2023 commitment to provide food to Sanirajak. Their financial support this year and into the future will be a crucial factor to ensure we can deliver on our annual commitment for this event.

We are in the process of purchasing food for the container, which will be picked up the week of July 3rd. I would encourage you to stop by St Elizabeth Seton parking lot to view the mural painted on the container, courtesy of Sacred Heart Catholic High School art students and staff.

Giving back to our Indigenous neighbours is not a one-time reconciliation event. National Indigenous Peoples Day is June 21st and we will then kick-off our goal to raise funds for the 2024 sea container. Blue donation envelopes are available at the back of the church.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,

George Quesnelle
North of 60 Program Coordinator
Society of St Vincent de Paul
John Chrysostom / St Elizabeth Seton Conference
