St. John Chrysostom, pray for us

Notice how noisy we have allowed our lives to become? Our culture thrives on noise. But until we take the time to be quiet, we will never hear God. He wants us to slow down and to listen to His voice. Because, as Elijah realized, God communicates in silence. But noise and restlessness is everywhere. To hear God, we too must listen to the quiet in all the noise. Look to Jesus who calms the storm; trust Him to bring peace to the restlessness. Let us open our hearts and hear the silence of God's care and guidance, knowing that He will never leave us. Quiet down and listen — God is in the silence.

However, Child Sex Trafficking is not just happening in third world countries and in the USA who is the biggest exploiter, but it is also happening here in Canada and growing vastly in Ontario.

COYOTE SIGHTINGS AT ST. JOHN CEMETERY

Families visiting the cemetery should be aware that coyotes have been sighted. Please exercise caution should you see one. Do not turn your back and run but back away quietly while remaining calm. Coyotes are in many of our parks, and this is not a situation unique to the cemetery. The Cemetery Board has made the Town of Newmarket aware of their presence.
