*For the intentions of the Community of
St. John Chrysostom Parish*

Don't be afraid, Jairus. Don't be afraid. "Only believe". Believe what? Jesus doesn't say. Believe that his daughter will be cured? He doesn't say. Believe that she will die and go to Heaven? He doesn't say. Did you notice anything? Mark explains nothing. He just says, "You have to believe." The woman who had suffered for 12 years knew: The Messiah came to bring us out of death into new life; out of sickness into health; out of darkness into the light. This is what the Messiah does, the Holy One of God. He comes to heal and to save. Sometimes we're afraid he comes to judge us, and to make us more fearful than we already are. But Jesus is love. He comes and takes us in our fear and in our brokenness and says, "arise." Without saying more than he needs to, Mark teaches that Jesus is here for us — to care for us, to heal us and to love us. Period. All we have to do is believe.

The Jubilee Prayer

*Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us
the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom. May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators
of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally. May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen.*

Awareness of the Kingdom Throughout Our Archdiocese: PEACE

"This dimension of the Kingdom is all about fullness of life, plenitude, a hungry heart being satisfied, consolation and joy, it is akin to an abundant life, fruitful not only on the personal level but in a relationship with the community and with the world." - Archbishop Francis Leo, SEEKING THE KINGDOM OF GOD ABOVE AND BEYOND ALL THINGS

TOWARDS THE JUBILEE

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

According to tradition, Our Lady of Mount Carmel appeared on July 16, 1251. The Blessed Virgin promised St. Simon Stock, oppressed with worries, that whoever would wear the Carmelite habit devoutly would receive the gift of final perseverance. The habit was taken to mean the scapular in particular. Join us to pray the Holy Rosary at 6:30pm and for Mass at 7:00 PM on Tuesday, July 16th as we celebrate the enrollment into the Brown Scapular on this feast day of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. The enrollment will take place after Mass and the final Blessing. In preparation, please pray the Novena on your own from July 7th to July 15th.

SECURITIES AS A CHARITABLE GIFT

One of the most financially sound ways to support the Archdiocese of Toronto is with the gift of securities (stocks, bonds, mutual funds). When you donate stocks, mutual funds and other publicly traded securities to a registered charity, you pay no capital gains tax and receive a tax receipt for the full amount of the gift. It means a great tax break for you and a significant support to your Parish. To donate securities, follow this link: <https://bit.ly/GiftsOfSecurities> and for more information, contact our office at development@archtoronto.org.

DONATING UNWANTED ITEMS

Thank you for thinking of us when decluttering or downsizing. Regrettably, we don't have enough space for donated items, such as artwork, newspaper clippings, furniture, collectibles, etc... For 'blessed' items, if your family or friends do not want them, the proper method of disposing is by burning them or burying them in the ground. These are respectful ways of parting with them.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Share one hour with our Lord. Adoration is one way you can make prayer and spending time with Jesus a greater priority in your life. Join us every Friday from 4pm-7pm for Eucharistic Adoration, Rosary, Chaplet of Divine Mercy and Benediction. The next First Friday Mass will be on July 7 at 7pm. All are welcome.

(Morning Mass is cancelled)

VOCATIONS

Jesus healed Jairus's daughter by saying "Talitha cum" which means "little girl, get up!". Has the Lord called you to get up and walk? Perhaps Jesus wants you to help others get up and walk. If you feel God is calling you to priesthood, religious life or the diaconate, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations Archdiocese of Toronto at:

THE BROWN SCAPULAR: A SILENT DEVOTION
CARMELITE RECOUNTS MARY'S PROMISE TO ST. SIMON STOCK
JULY 7-15

On the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, we present here an article written by Discalced Carmelite Father Kieran Kavanaugh, on the devotion of the brown Carmelite scapular.

* * *

During the Crusades in 12th century, a group of Westerners took up the life of hermits by the well of St. Elijah on Mt. Carmel. They built a chapel in honor of the Mother of Jesus, conscious that they were living in the area made holy by Jesus and his Mother (Nazareth is less than 20 miles away).

When Saracens toppled the Latin kingdom of the Crusaders, the hermits of Carmel had to flee the holy mountain and return to the West; Cypress, Sicily, France, England, Ireland and other countries. They brought with them little more than their title of "Brothers of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel".

In Europe they were entering a hostile world cluttered with many new religious families. The arrival of strangers from Mount Carmel was inauspicious, they were frowned upon. Internally, they were divided as to whether they should cling to their background as hermits or adapt to a new status of begging friars. According to tradition, on July 16, 1251 our Lady of Mount Carmel appeared to the prior general, St. Simon Stock, at Aylesford, England.

The Blessed Virgin promised St. Simon Stock, oppressed with worries, that whoever would wear the Carmelite habit devoutly would receive the gift of final perseverance. The habit was taken to mean the scapular in particular. The scapular was a broad band of cloth over the shoulders, falling below the knees toward the feet front and back as an apron, worn still as part of the religious habit by a number of orders of monks and friars. As it was gradually adapted for use by the laity, it became two small panels of brown cloth joined by strings and worn over the shoulders as a familiar Marian sacramental.

From the 16th century until the Second Vatican Council the scapular received warm welcome from the faithful and enjoyed a singular approval by the Church magisterium. Part of the reason for this esteem was undoubtedly the constant stream of wonderful graces, spiritual and temporal, that were poured out on individuals through its devout use. But another reason for its popularity was its strict connection with the salvation of our soul, which takes priority over all our other duties here below. Novena to Our Lady of Mount Carmel

First Day

O Beautiful Flower of Carmel, most fruitful vine, splendor of heaven, holy and singular, who brought forth the Son of God, still ever remaining a pure virgin, assist us in our necessity! O Star of the Sea, help and protect us! Show us that you are our Mother!

(pause and mention petitions)

*Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be
Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.*

Second Day

Most Holy Mary, Our Mother, in your great love for us you gave us the Holy Scapular of Mount Carmel, having heard the prayers of your chosen son Saint Simon Stock. Help us now to wear it faithfully and with devotion. May it be a sign to us of our desire to grow in holiness.

(pause and mention petitions)

*Say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be
Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.*

Third Day

O Queen of Heaven, you gave us the Scapular as an outward sign by which we might be known as your faithful children. may we always wear it with honor by avoiding sin and imitating your virtues. Help us to be faithful to this desire of ours.

(pause and mention petitions) s)

*Say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be
Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.*

Fourth Day

When you gave us, Gracious Lady, the Scapular as our Habit, you called us to be not only servants, but also your own children.

We ask you to gain for us from your Son the grace to live as you children in joy, peace and love. (pause and mention petitions)

*Say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be
Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.*

Fifth Day

O Mother of Fair Love, through your goodness, as your children, we are called to live in the spirit of Carmel. Help us to live in charity with one another, prayerful as Elijah of old, and mindful of our call to minister to God's people.

(pause and mention petitions)

*Say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be
Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.*

Sixth Day

With loving provident care, O Mother Most Amiable, you covered us with your Scapular as a shield of defense against the Evil One.

Through your assistance, may we bravely struggle against the powers of evil, always open to your Son Jesus Christ.

(pause and mention petitions)

*Say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be
Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.*

Seventh Day

O Mary, Help of Christians, you assured us that wearing your Scapular worthily would keep us safe from harm. Protect us in both body and soul with your continual aid. may all that we do be pleasing to your Son and to you.

(pause and mention petitions)

*Say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be
Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.*

Eighth Day

You give us hope, O Mother of Mercy, that through your Scapular promise we might quickly pass through the fires of purgatory to the Kingdom of your Son. Be our comfort and our hope.

Grant that our hope may not be in vain but that, ever faithful to your Son and to you, we may speedily enjoy after death the blessed company of Jesus and the saints.

(pause and mention petitions)

*Say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be
Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.*

Ninth Day

O Most Holy Mother of Mount Carmel, when asked by a saint to grant privileges to the family of Carmel, you gave assurance of your Motherly love and help to those faithful to you and to your Son.

Behold us, your children.

We glory in wearing your holy habit, which makes us members of your family of Carmel, through which we shall have your powerful protection in life, at death and even after death.

Look down with love, O Gate of Heaven, on all those now in their last agony!

Look down graciously, O Virgin, Flower of Carmel, on all those in need of help!

Look down mercifully, O Mother of our Savior, on all those who do not know that they are numbered among your children.

Look down tenderly, O Queen of All Saints, on the poor souls!

(pause and mention petitions)

*Say: Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be
Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.*
