Divine Mercy Sunday

Jesus, I trust in You

The 3 O'Clock Prayer

You expired Jesus, but the source of life gushed out for souls and an ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable divine mercy, envelope the whole world and empty yourself out upon us. O blood and water which gushed forth from the heart of Christ as a Fount of Mercy for us, I trust in You. O blood and water which gushed forth from the heart of Christ as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in you. O blood and water which gushed forth from the heart of Christ as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in you. Jesus I trust in You.

Happy Easter*

Today, Jesus calls us to believe without seeing: "Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." In that upper room He gave the disciples a special gift: Peace. He gave them a peace that would overcome their troubled hearts. It was an assurance of God's presence in their lives, wherever they would go. Jesus gives us this gift as well. Trust in Him. Trust Him in your infirmity. Trust Him when the cross you carry at work or at home may feel unbearable. In moments of darkness, fear and trials, trust Him. Fear nothing. Trust that He keeps watch over you even when you do not call upon Him...because His love is great...and His Mercy, unfathomable.

MASS FOR THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD MONDAY, APRIL 8 AT 7:00 PM

Join us for the Mass of the Feast of the Annunciation of the Lord with consecration to Jesus through Mary. For those who completed the prayed the 33 days of preparation, the consecration will follow the mass.

Today's celebration of the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord recalls the historical event of the Angel Gabriel appearing to the Virgin Mary, as found in Luke 1:26-38. It also celebrates the Church's faith in the underlying reality that took place at that moment in time. It celebrates the Incarnation, making this solemnity not only a Marian solemnity, but first and foremost a Christological one. Though Christmas commemorates the birth of Christ, the Annunciation commemorates the Incarnation of Christ. This solemnity is also a Marian celebration. We celebrate the Virgin Mary's perfect "Yes" to the plan of the Father. We celebrate her humility, obedience, docility, and especially her motherhood of God and man. DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY SUNDAY, APRIL 7, 2024

As we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, ponder the profound significance of this devotion in the Church and the world today. We need God's abundant Divine Mercy to flow from the gates of Heaven upon us more than ever. Only in Heaven will we understand the full depths of God's Mercy. For now, we must trust all that He has revealed through His humble servant Saint Faustina and respond to the requests He has given to us through her. Commit yourself to the various ways God has called us to call upon His Mercy and do so with as much vigor and devotion you can offer Him. The following is the 3 o'clock prayer Jesus gave to Saint Faustina:

Prayer: You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us (#1319). Jesus, I trust in You.

BUILDING A COMMUNITY OF STEWARDSHIP

In the first reading we hear the wonderful account of the early Christians living a beautiful community of stewardship in which they were all "of one heart and soul." Likewise, in the same way the early Christians offered all of themselves for the sake of the Church, we too should offer the gifts of our time and talent to our parish community. In this way, we will be able to echo the words from the first reading and joyfully proclaim: "There was not a needy person among them."

A wide representation of church leaders in the Greater Toronto Area is expected at this event.

YOUR SHARELIFE GIFT IS A LIFELINE TO FAMILIES IN NEED

Many individuals and families silently suffer from depression, anxiety, grief and trauma. ShareLife-supported Catholic Family Services agencies provide a lifeline to those dealing with mental health challenges. "Your generosity allows us to assist some of the most vulnerable and marginalized members of our community. Without access to free support, they would be left alone and unable to get the help they need. Each donation impacts a life for the better. Thank you." - Elizabeth Pierce, Catholic Family Services of Durham. Our goal of $96,500. Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.
