LET US PRAY
 FOR THOSE WHO ARE ILL
 AND FOR THOSE WHO ARE RECENTLY DECEASED

Pope Leo XVI's Prayer for September:
 For our relationship with all of creation

Let us pray that, inspired by Saint Francis, we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect. Amen.
St. Francis, pray for us

We need to wake up. Make a clear decision. Are we with Jesus or against Him? Are we waiting until a crisis hits before choosing to change our lives? Today's gospel parable surprise's us. It makes us think. We are reminded we are God's stewards and we are challenged to use our talents and wealth wisely so as not to be found wanting at the hour of account-giving. We should be as prudent and resourceful in acquiring goodness as the shady steward was in acquiring money and making his future safe. Earthly resources will eventually run out and material things won't follow us into eternity. We need to remember this. Let's live wisely, give generously, and prove ourselves faithful stewards of all God has entrusted to us...because the crisis, is now.

YOUTH CHOIR

We are excited to announce a new opportunity for young people to participate in the music ministry at St. John's parish! Rehearsals will take place on Sunday mornings at 11:15am. For more information please reach out to Joseph Follows or Nancy Davie at: stjc.mainoffice4@gmail.com

NORTH OF 60° PROJECT

Thanks to your generosity, two sea containers filled with 11,049 lbs of essential food items were shipped in July to Gjoa Haven and Taloyoak, two remote Arctic communities. The $11,202 cost was shared by our St. John Chrysostom / St. Elizabeth Seton Conference, with support from Our Lady of Grace (Aurora) and St. Paul the Apostle (Alliston). Special thanks to St. Patrick's Conference for organizing the containers and helping streamline the process. Early sea lane openings allowed for timely delivery, and families received the food soon after arrival. As we approach the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation on September 30, special blue NORTH OF 60 PROJECT envelopes are available at the back of the church for those who wish to support this ongoing outreach. Thank you for your continued support!
