LET US PRAY
FOR THOSE WHO ARE ILL
AND FOR THOSE WHO ARE RECENTLY DECEASED

Please pray for all those affected by natural disasters worldwide, especially victims of Hurricane Melissa in the Caribbean and Typhoon Kalmaegi in the Philippines, Vietnam and Thailand. May the Lord comfort those who have lost loved ones, and provide strength to those displaced.

St. John Chrysostom, pray for us

His kingship is unlike that of earthly rulers. Jesus does not reign through power, domination, or wealth. Instead, His kingdom is founded on love, service, justice, and mercy. To call Jesus "King" means that He is the ultimate authority in our lives. He invites us to submit not out of fear, but in trust—trust that He knows what is truly good for us, for our families, and for the world. We are called to a higher standard: to live in harmony with one another, to care for the poor and marginalized, to forgive as we have been forgiven, and to seek peace where there is conflict. His kingship is also a promise: a promise that one day, all suffering, injustice, and evil will be brought under His loving rule. In Christ, the weak are strengthened, the lost are found, and the broken are made whole. Celebrating Christ the King is not just a reminder of His authority—it is a call to participate in His kingdom here and now by living as faithful disciples, witnesses of His love, and instruments of His peace.

December 5th at 7pm.

November is the Month Dedicated to All Souls in Purgatory

The month of November is dedicated to All Souls in Purgatory. The Church commemorates all her faithful who have departed from this life, but have not yet attained the joys of heaven. St. Paul warns us that we must not be ignorant concerning the dead, nor sorrowful, "even as others who have no hope ... For the Lord Himself shall come down from heaven ... and the dead who are in Christ shall rise". The Church has always taught us to pray for those who have gone into eternity. Let us diligently seek out every sinful attachment within our souls, confess our sins, ask for God's mercy, receive forgiveness and change our lives completely. Please pray for the souls in Purgatory. This year, our Advent Day of Confession will be offered on:

Tuesday, December 16th from 3:00 pm-6:00 pm and 7:30pm-9:00 pm
