POPE LEO XIV'S PRAYER INTENTION JANUARY 2026

*For prayer with the Word of God
Let us pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.*

St. John Chrysostom, pray for us

As the Christmas season gives way to Ordinary Time, today's Gospel invites us to focus more closely on who Jesus is and why He has come. He is God's chosen Son. He came to love. It is the only thing that God calls us to—love. This is why, our loving Father has given us Jesus—to show us how to love, to fill us with His Holy Spirit—and—to redeem us. And so, to hand over all our guilt and all our sins to Jesus—because Jesus invites us to do this—is a gift of mercy beyond anything we may deserve. So always, when we pray the "Lamb of God" at Mass, we should remember that Jesus willingly gave his life for us—and saved us. As Ordinary Time begins, we are invited not only to behold Jesus more deeply, but also to follow John's example by pointing others to Christ through our faith, humility, and daily witness...because when John pointed out that Jesus is the "Lamb of God," our lives changed forever.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY (JAN 18-25)

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is celebrated worldwide each year from January 18-25, inviting Christians to pray for healing, reconciliation, and unity in the Body of Christ, as Jesus prayed: "that they may all be one" (John 17:21). This year's theme, "There is one body and one Spirit" (Ephesians 4:4), highlights Christian unity as a calling of the Holy Spirit. The prayers and reflections were prepared by Christian communities in Armenia, the first nation to embrace Christianity, offering a powerful witness of faith, hope, and unity amid suffering. A regional ecumenical prayer service will be held on Sunday, January 18, 2026, at 4:00 p.m. at Runnymede United Church, Toronto, hosted by the Office for Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations and the GTA Council of Christian Churches. Bishop John A. Boissonneau and leaders from many Christian traditions will participate. All are welcome. More information: bit.ly/3Jc6RWT

POPE LEO XIV'S MESSAGE FOR THE WORLD DAY OF PEACE 2026

"Peace exists. It wants to dwell within us. It has the gentle power to enlighten and expand our understanding; it resists and overcomes violence. Peace is a breath of the eternal; while to evil we cry out 'Enough!', to peace we whisper 'Forever.' Into this horizon the Risen One has lead us. Sustained by this conviction, even amid what Pope Francis called 'a third world war...' read more: <https://www.vatican.va/content/leo-xiv/en/messages/peace/documents/20251208-messaggio-peace.html>
